Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust is the sponsor for this study based in the United Kingdom. We will be using information from you and/or your medical records in order to undertake this study and will act as the data controller for this study. This means that we are responsible for looking after your information and using it properly. Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust is legally obligated to keep identifiable information about you for 15 years after the study has finished.

Your rights to access, change or move your information are limited, as we need to manage your information in specific ways in order for the research to be reliable and accurate. If you withdraw from the study, we will keep the information about you that we have already obtained. To safeguard your rights, we will use the minimum personally-identifiable information possible.

You can find out more about how we use your information by contacting the Mesobank Research Tissue Bank at Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust on: 01223 639878 or Email: admin@mesobank.com.

[Site Name] will collect information from you and/or your medical records for this research study in accordance with our instructions.

[Site Name] will use your name, date of birth, hospital number and/or NHS number and contact details to contact you about the research study, and make sure that relevant information about the study is recorded. Individuals from Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and regulatory organisations may look at your medical and research records to check the accuracy of the research study. [Site Name] will pass these details to Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust along with the information collected from you and/or your medical records. The only people in Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust who will have access to information that identifies you will be people who need to audit the data collection process. The people who analyse the information will not be able to identify you and will not be able to find out your name, NHS number or contact details.

[Site Name] will keep identifiable information about you from this study for 15 years after the study has finished.

Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust will also collect information about you for Mesobank from organisations such as Public Health England (National Cancer Registration and Analysis Service) and NHS Digital. This information will include health information, which is regarded as a special category of information. We will use this information to help the researchers who receive your tissue to interpret the results of the work they undertake.

When you agree to take part in a research study, the information about your health and care may be provided to researchers running other research studies in this organisation and in other organisations. These organisations may be universities, NHS organisations or companies involved in health and care research in this country or abroad. Your information will only be used by organisations and researchers to conduct research in accordance with the UK Policy Framework for Health and Social Care Research.

This information will not identify you and will not be combined with other information in a way that could identify you. The information will only be used for the purpose of health and care research, and cannot be used to contact you or to affect your care. It will not be used to make decisions about future services available to you, such as insurance.
